KeyMacro enables you to record, repeat, and edit text (or audio) input without the use of your mouse. When you click the Record button, the keystroke will be stored as a macro. You can then replay the macro later by clicking the Repeat button. If you change any part of the macro, the Edit button allows you to make changes to that macro and then save your changes. Once you have stored a macro, it can be shared with other users. If you want to delete a macro, simply click on the Delete button. If you want to clear your macro cache (reset all macros to the original value), click on the Clear button. Trolls-A-Tron Description: Trolls-A-Tron is an arcade-style game similar to the Minesweeper board game. It has very simple rules, but a very tough gameplay, so it's easy to get addicted! You are playing a map of a huge amusement park. The objective is to clear the board from all objects. Any object that you click on will start a timer. The timer will start counting down in seconds. At the end of the countdown, any object that is not cleared will be destroyed. To clear an object, you have to click on it exactly at the right time. If you click too early, the object will not disappear. If you click too late, a monster will appear, damaging all objects nearby. There are two types of objects: dangerous and innocent. Dangerous objects come in two types: dangerous blocks and mines. Mines can be destroyed by normal objects, but they will also start a timer that will be activated at the end of the countdown. Each round consists of five minutes. After the round starts, the timer will start counting down. At the end of the round, all objects will be destroyed and you will get a new round with new rules. If you get any of the objects activated, you will lose the round. You have only five minutes to clear all objects before your time runs out. You can change the size of the map at any time. You can also choose to save a map. Fantastic Fall Description: An atmospheric, hand-drawn, and 2D action platformer in a medieval fantasy setting. You play as the last remaining member of a group of explorers, who have been trapped in a dungeon for 500 years. You must complete various puzzles and find the 1d6a3396d6
