Phineas and Ferb
Phineas and Ferb is an American animated television series that aired on Disney Channel. The series premiered on June 1, 2007, and ended on September 17, 2008, after two seasons and 21 episodes. The show is set in the fictional town of Twilight Town where two brothers, Phineas and Ferb Flynn are active in science and have created many inventions. The series was created by Dan Povenmire and Jeff "Swampy" Marsh, who also created the Adult Swim cartoon Aqua Teen Hunger Force and have written and performed a number of recurring Adult Swim voice characters. The series has met with generally positive reviews and moderate success in ratings. Its first season, consisting of episodes drawn in the style of the era of animated Disney shorts, earned particularly high ratings for its original episodes. The series moved to a "modern" style in its second season, and the ratings slipped. Phineas and Ferb was pulled from Disney Channel's programming lineup in September 2008, and reruns remained in place on Disney XD through January 2009. In June 2013, Disney Channel and Disney XD announced that a new season of Phineas and Ferb was to be produced, with the first episode airing on June 2, 2013. The first trailer and details of the second season were released on May 29, 2013, and the series aired in the summer of 2013. Premise Two brothers, Phineas Flynn and Ferb Fletcher, create inventions and scientific experiments in their garage.
